IAN KIMUTAI LANGAT

Project Coordinator | Project & Program Management | Government Program Delivery | Business Process Improvement

Sydney, New South Wales, Australia
Mobile: +61 406 427 783
Email: iankimutai50@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Project coordination and program delivery professional with experience across commercial project environments, government-funded employment services, document management and community leadership. Holds a Master of Global Project Management (Advanced) and a Bachelor of Science in Entrepreneurship.

Experienced in supporting client relationships, contract administration, project delivery, stakeholder engagement and service improvement. Combines structured project management knowledge with practical coordination, communication and a commitment to reliable, outcomes-focused delivery.

CORE CAPABILITIES

- Project coordination and delivery support
- Project and program management principles
- Client relationship and stakeholder management
- Contract administration
- Business process and service improvement
- Document preparation, scanning and records handling
- Quality, compliance and administrative coordination
- Team collaboration and community leadership
- Microsoft Office 365 and workforce-related systems

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Project Coordinator — Harvey Blinds

Chipping Norton, New South Wales | November 2024 – Present

Progressed from Junior Project Coordinator to Project Coordinator.

- Support end-to-end project coordination and delivery.
- Manage client communication and support positive client relationships.
- Assist with contract administration and project documentation.
- Coordinate project activities and priorities to support timely delivery.
- Contribute to organised workflows and practical problem-solving.

Employment Services — atWork Australia

Sydney, New South Wales | February 2023 – November 2024

Worked in a government-funded employment services environment supporting Workforce Australia program delivery.

- Supported service delivery within an employment services setting.
- Worked with participants and stakeholders in a program-focused environment.
- Used relevant workforce systems and administrative processes.
- Contributed to participant-focused service delivery and operational coordination.

Document Preparation & Scanning Operator — Compu-Stor

Camellia, New South Wales | March 2022 – July 2022

- Supported document preparation and scanning operations.
- Followed document-handling and processing workflows.
- Contributed to accurate and organised records processing.

EDUCATION

Master of Global Project Management (Advanced)

Torrens University Australia | 2024

Capstone research focused on service delivery at EmploymentConnect, applying project integration, scope, schedule and communications management principles.

Bachelor of Science in Entrepreneurship

Moi University | 2018

Academic foundation in entrepreneurship, business development and organisational thinking.

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

Duty Chairperson / Responsible Person — Jnoud Eladra

Contribute to the work of a registered Australian charity with activities across New South Wales, Lebanon and Uganda.

Community initiatives include practical assistance, volunteering, bottle collection, merchandise and craft activities, and support for people experiencing challenges.

Focus areas include responsible leadership, collaboration, community engagement and practical support.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Australian driver licence
- Working rights as applicable to current visa conditions
- Working With Children Check (WWCC) and National Police Check (NPC), as held and current
- Referees available upon request